

EZconnex® Float Connection System

SJE Rhombus (101)

Revolutionary new way to install and maintain float switches in a wet well. Simply install the wiring manifold, plug in the EZconnex quick release (pinch and pull) float switches, and wire the single manifold cable to the control panel. The manifold cable contains colored wire pairs that match a color identification system on the manifold housing for easy field wiring.

