Topic: Adapt and Overcome - My Journey towards Double Gold

"Johnny Mo" is a two-time World Curling Champion two-time Olympic Gold medalist. John recently returned from the Winter Olympics in PyeongChang, Korea where he and his partner Kaitlyn Lawes made history by becoming the first ever Mixed Doubles Champions in the Sport of Curling. He also won Gold at the Vancouver Olympics in 2010 with the men's curling team. In addition to his curling career, John has a passion for serving his community as a Firefighter at RockyView Fire Department, a position where he started as a volunteer back in 2004. John is also an active member of the Big Hearted Mavericks - a group of 25 dedicated businessmen out of the Calgary area who run various charity events throughout the city. The group have raised over 4 million dollars for Children's Charities since their inception. John currently resides in Canmore, Alberta in the heart of the Rocky Mountains. In his free time, John enjoys traveling with his family, cooking, listening to vinyl and has a strong passion for "anything outdoors... fishing, hiking, camping, golf, beach volleyball, and mountain biking..". He is also a certified holistic nutritionist and gourmet chef.
